

LEGAL WORKSHOP FOR LEADERS: Navigating key human resources challenges

Intended for supervisors, managers, and human resource professionals

Thursday, 28 November 2019

9:00 – 4:30 pm

Carefor Services (Madawaska Rm.)

425 Cecelia Street

Pembroke, ON K8A 1S7

Join labour and employment lawyer, Cheryl Wiles Pooran, of PooranLaw in a full day workshop sponsored by Inclusion Renfrew County (IRC).

COST: $50 per person

Please RSVP to Holly Tennian at htennian@cluov.ca

In this full-day training session, Cheryl will review some of the human resources challenges facing leaders in the not-for-profit and social services sectors, including:

- Workplace Accommodations
- Managing Absenteeism and Leaves of Absence
- Passport Workers and Respite Workers

Cheryl is an experienced labour and employment lawyer whose practice is dedicated to not-for-profit agencies that support people with disabilities and other vulnerable groups. Cheryl works with agencies across the province on day to day challenges such as collective bargaining, grievance arbitration and wrongful dismissal, as well as more specialized issues such as contracting with Host Families and Respite Providers, managing harassment allegations involving people supported and their families, and serious occurrence reporting and investigations.